Pilot Path and Global Flight Training Solutions have today announced the launch of a partnership which will provide Pilot Path students with the opportunity to complete their hour building in sunny southwest Florida, USA. Located at Immokalee regional airport, GFTS strive to supporting student pilots achieve their flight deck goal at a cost-efficient price.

Pilot Path are a flight training coordination service bringing together various Approved and Declared Training Organisations to deliver all aspects of the necessary training for commercial flying. Pilot Path offer an alternative modular training route offering the opportunity for those wishing to pursue a career as a commercial airline pilot the opportunity complete their flight training in a high-quality manner with unnecessary frills removed to ensure the most cost-efficient route to flight training.

The Pilot Path management team encompasses aviation experts with proven experience in global airlines and a financial team specialising in credit control within Ireland and Europe. All Pilot Path training programs are overseen directly by commercial pilot mentors meaning students can be confident in their flight training journey.

Commenting on the announcement, Pilot Path Operations Director, Christopher Curtis said:

"We are delighted to announce our partnership with GFTS which will help establish even further links between the numerous high-quality flight training schools and institutions in Ireland, Europe and now the USA through Pilot Path. GFTS will provide PPL holders in Ireland and the EU with a unique alternative to ATPL hour building, completed in Florida through a 4-week intensive training schedule all in line with Pilot Paths cost efficient, no frills model. We are confident they will add to our vision at Pilot Path of making flight training accessible to all and allowing those from all different backgrounds to realise and pursue their dreams and potential of becoming a commercial airline pilot"

On behalf of Global Flight Training Solutions, Victor Costello said:

"We look forward to welcoming Pilot Path students to Florida as they embark on their exciting journey in training to become commercial airline pilots. Our instructors provide a caring and supportive learning environment in both the classroom and aircraft. We are dedicated to helping Pilot Path students achieve their flight deck career goals through personal attention and customized programs. We promise that it will be easy to immerse yourself in our flying-centred learning experience in beautiful, sunny Southwest Florida. It is sure to be an experience they won't forget!"
